MUPD makes arrest in shots fired

The University of Missouri Police Department has arrested Derrick Sleet, 39, of Columbia, in connection to an incident that occurred earlier in the day at a parking lot at Women’s Hospital, 404 N. Keene St.

MUPD had received a report at about 6:45 a.m. today that an individual was leaving the hospital parking lot when Sleet shot at the vehicle, striking it once. The individual kept driving and called 911. The individual was alone in the vehicle and was not injured.

Sleet was arrested for the following:

- One count first-degree assault (Missouri Revised Statute 565.050-001Y20201305.0)
- One count armed criminal action (Missouri Revised Statute 571.015-001Y20205299.0)
- One count felony property damage (Missouri Revised Statute 569.100-001Y20202999.0)
- One count unlawful possession of a weapon (Missouri Revised Statute 571.020-001Y20205299.0)

Sleet was transported to the Boone County Jail. A bond has not yet been set.

This remains an active investigation, and there is no additional information to report at this time.
