

MUPD arrest man with knife

Sept. 24, 2020

At about 3 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 24, the University of Missouri Police Department arrested Nicholas Walters, 34, of Columbia, for unlawful use of a weapon, assault in the fourth degree, felony resisting arrest and trespassing in the first degree in response to a report of a man with a knife near the intersection of College Avenue and Anthony Street.

An MU Alert was issued at about 2:30 a.m. MUPD responded and took Walters into custody about 25 minutes later near Ripley and Pratt streets. The Columbia Police Department assisted.

There is no more information to release at this time.
